(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Astounding revelations regarding the methods of Standard Oil and its railroad allies were made today in the president's message to congress sent with the report of Commissioner Garfield.

Organized capital is relentlessly pilloried. The work of independent investigators of recent years is completely overshadowed and the "muck rakers" must now bow to the fearless son of the martyred president.

He convicts the oil trust of flagrant and persistent violation of the law and accuses officials of deliberate lying.

He says at the beginning of the investigation the officials of the Standard stated the company had not obtained and was not then obtaining secret rebates.

Garfield proceeded to show that the company habitually received and is still receiving secret rebates and cites case after case in proof.

In every section of the country the Standard has profited by numerous flagrant discriminations by railroads in behalf of the Standard and affiliated corporations. Except a few large concerns, in California, the Standard has been the sole beneficiary of such discriminations. In this connection the commissioner refers to discrimination practiced by the Southern Pacific where, he says, they showed favoritism in the allotment of cars, allowed shippers thus creating one of the principal grievances of the California oil producers.

Garfield says investigation shows clearly one glaring defect in the interstate commerce law, viz: the methods of filing and publishing tariffs. As long as the state rate is not forced to be made public, all manner of devices to evade the purpose of the law are possible. All state rates used in connection with interstate shipments should be filed with the commission and radical changes made in the direction of simplifying the tariff.

MAN'S MINDBartholomew McCormick to be Taken Away for Treatment

Bereft of the companionship of his aged aunt, Mrs. Riley, who died last winter, Bartholomew McCormick of 1107 Market street, became silent and morose and gradually drifted into insanity, affecting strange customs and finally becoming a public nuisance about whom many complaints reached the authorities.

Officer Yehle found him roaming about the north side on an aimless mission last night and had him locked up in the city jail until today, when Judge Brindley upon application had a commission of doctors appointed to examine him as to his sanity. McCormick was found to be in need of treatment and will be committed to the state hospital for the insane at Mendota.

Since his aunt died McCormick has led a nomadic existence and when he appeared on the streets at all roamed about in an aimless fashion, rapping at people's doors and asking for alms. Of late he has besieged the bishop's residence a number of times and has appeared at other houses in that vicinity.

The ordinance providing for an extension of the tracks of the street railway company to the Catholic cemetery introduced by Alderman Keller, will be considered at a joint meeting of the committees on ordinance and railroads to be held in the small council chamber at the city hall next Monday evening.

Notices of the meeting were sent out this morning by the city clerk to members of the committee and also to President B. E. Edwards of the railway company and Former Mayor W. A. Anderson, who is interested in street railway extensions.

GAVEL DEFEATS
DIRECT PLURALITY(Special Tribune Dispatch.)
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., May 4.—The direct plurality members of the house this afternoon nearly scored a victory but adjournment under the gavel prevented. The republicanized Daugherty bill was up and a motion to table it was ordered. The vote on the motion resulted in a tie. Other democrats were coming to the bill's rescue when Shurtleff declared a recess until night.CHILD SHOT IN PLAY
HOLD-UP NEAR HERE

Reports have reached the city of the rotable fatal shooting of the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole C. Ash of Lanesboro. It was in a "play" holdup that three boys who were playing truant coaxed the little fellow into the woods and shot him in the breast with a .32 caliber revolver.
The ball was extracted by physicians who say the child may live. A boy by the name of Dent and two sons of John Welch, aged 11 and 14 years, are charged with the act though no arrest have been made. The shot was heard by Mrs. Habberstad and the groans of the wounded child brought her to his assistance. She carried him five blocks to his home.
The boy's jacket shows a burn which indicates he was shot at close range although the boys who are suspected say they did not shoot their playmate, but declare the bullet came from the gun of a hidden marksman. This is improbable in the face of the burned condition of the wounded boy's clothing.

Know if Charges of Operators are True(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, May 4.—The Illinois coal operators are meeting today. Herman Justi says if an agreement is not made soon he will resume with non-union miners.

The operators' association received recommendations of the committee that immediate steps be taken to put non-union workmen, necessary to preserve properties, into the mines. Leading operators think the recommendations will be adopted, precipitating a physical clash in the state.

SCRANTON, May 4.—Several delegates are piled and primed with questions to ask Mitchell to explain allegations of the anthracite operators that he is playing the soft coal fields against the hard. Conservative miners are impressed by the charges and want Mitchell to show them the anthracite miners have not been made shuttlecocks in a game by which the bituminous men are to reap an advantage. They do not suspect Mitchell of deliberately sandbagging the anthracite people for the sake of the bituminous, but the situation is so involved that they want an explanation.

TINY CHILDREN TOOK

STEPHEN ZOLCEZAK IS INCORRIGIBLE

Boy Who Tortured Dog, Steals Flowers
and is Sent Away Again

Still imbued with the same malicious spirit which prompted him a couple of years ago to cut a dog's tail and ears off, Stephen Zolcezak has committed another misdemeanor and will for a fourth time be sent to the reform school, this time probably to stay until he is of age.

Stephen's latest stunt was performed this morning shortly after daybreak, when he entered the yard of W. L. Osborne at Division and Twelfth streets and pulled up by the roots a number of handsome tulips, completely spoiling the bed. On the way down the street the boy cut off the roots and lower stems, leaving a

Mysterious Fire at 2:30 in Morning

TIN BOXES ARE RIFLED

Most of Money Safe in the Home of Postmaster
Webster, However

A mysterious fire which entirely destroyed the postoffice building in La Crosse at 2 o'clock this morning will command an investigation by United States postal authorities.

Circumstances surrounding the fire are most peculiar and warrant the theory of burglary and incendiarism to cover it up. The postmaster is as thoroughly mystified over the fire as are the other villagers.

Al. Wilson residing near the postoffice were awakened by a bright light which shone in his window at 2 o'clock. Looking out he saw the postoffice in flames and gave an alarm which woke up the entire village. With the primitive fire fighting apparatus at hand nothing could be done toward saving the building and the structure was soon destroyed.

The postmaster searched the ruins and found the strong tin box in which he kept his money and a few stamps. Unlocking the box it was found to be empty, everything of value having been taken. Postmaster E. B. Webster had left about $30 in change and some stamps in the box. Fortunately he had taken most of his stamps into his residence near by and locked them up in his private safe, as was his custom. The loss on the building and contents will aggregate $1,000. There was no insurance. A large amount of mail was destroyed.

The story is prevalent in the village today that some one about town committed a robbery in the building and then set fire to the structure. Mr. Webster said this afternoon that everything indicated this.

All that saved the destruction of the Webster residence was the sheet iron which covered the postoffice building and the absence of a breeze.

PALATIAL NEW CHAPEL IS DONE

With not a foot of wood used in its entire construction, the new quarter of a million dollar chapel just completed for the Franciscan Sisters in this city is one of the few absolutely fire-proof buildings in this country and perhaps the best of its kind.
The building is constructed entirely of steel, stone, brick and cement and their by-products, and outside of the magnificent grand pipe from organ and the seats there is nothing in the structure of an inflammable nature during the latter part of August.

It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and send the blood through your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, have pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are weak, and your system run-down. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nerve which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves.

"For eighteen years Dr. Miles' Nerve and Anti-Pain Pills have been my close companions. Early in married life, while raising children, my nerves became all worn-out—could not sleep; had no appetite; indigestion very bad, and had such awful dizzy spells. Then I began using Dr. Miles' Nerve, and at once I began to improve, and soon found myself in perfect health."

MRS. S. L. YOUNG,

Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

WHOLE FEDERAL JUDICIARY IS INDICTED BY SENATOR TILLMAN

Washington, May 4.—Tillman in the senate, as an argument against granting to United States courts the power to enforce the execution of orders of the interstate commerce commission as to railway rates, made a general indictment of the reliability of United States courts from the supreme court down. He disclaimed any attack on the supreme court when he referred to its income tax decision, but said it had "wobbled" more or less. He declared that many of the federal judges were unduly prejudiced in favor of the railways, and were consequently wholly unfit to be trusted with the power of passing on railway questions.

Reference to the Supreme Court.

Referring to the division of the supreme court on the income tax case he said that in that case one of the judges had changed his mind. "Thus," he said, "the practice of a century was reversed and the country submitted merely because of the plea that the highest court of the country must be sustained." He could not accept the idea that there was anything holy about a judge, "and when we see how the highest judges differ or change their minds, possibly because something gets the matter with their stomachs, or they sleep badly, we cannot be blamed if we conclude that they are not infallible."

Attacks on Iowa Jurist.

He cited other cases in other courts intended to show that some judges are "not only not infallible but not incorruptible." The first of the references was made to Judge Smith McPherson, of Iowa, who was represented in an article in the New York World of the 30th of March last as having appeared at a banquet to Governor Cummins at Council Bluffs in such a condition as "not to be able to stand up without clinging to the table." He was interrupted by Carter, Dolliver and Perkins, who defended Judge McPherson, the latter declaring that he knew the judge to be a teetotaler.

"Side-Swipe" at the President.

Tillman next referred to a pleasure trip to Tampico given by three Kansas railroads to federal judges McPherson, Phillips and Pollock. Tillman said that Judge Phillips had been especially commended by the president in connection with the Paul Morton case, and he contrasted the president's course in this case with his course in criticising Judge Humphrey in the beef packers' case.

BITTER AGAINST JUDGE JENKINS

Glad He Can Do No More "Devilment"—Clash with Spooner.

He next asked attention to the Northern Pacific railroad receivership in which Judge James G. Jenkins, of the Seventh circuit, figured in 1893, and in which an injunction against strikers was granted. Commenting on these facts Tillman said that Jenkins had recently retired; "Therefore," he added, "he can do no more devilment like this." Quoting from a report on the Northern Pacific case made in the house of representatives Tillman asked: "What do you suppose a judge who would so far forget the deencies as to ignore the law and imperil the rights of several thousand men employed by a railroad would do if appealed to in a rate case in which an order had been made which was displeasing to the railroads?" Then he cited the instance of a North Carolina editor who had been fined and jailed for "criticizing" the appointment of a receiver and then named Judge Pardee, in Georgia, saying he should be impeached for one injunction he granted, and Judge Swayne, impeached, and acquitted by the senate.

When Tillman referred to the Jenkins injunction he said: "I believe it has come to be considered good law to issue injunctions against strikers," said Tillman, and added, "if it is not the senator from Wisconsin will correct." The manner of this appeal to him evidently angered Spooner. He rose and replied sharply saying: "The senator from South Carolina forgets what is decent when he challenges me in that way."

Tillman attempted to make prompt disclaimer of any intention to offend, and when Spooner declined to yield the South Carolinian remarked: "I have red blood in my veins."

"No more than I have," retorted Spooner.

Tillman, however, insisted both upon withdrawing his question and apologizing.

RUSSIAN ANARCHIST KILLED BY HIS OWN BOMB

Paris, May 4.—A bomb explosion occurred in the forest of Vincennes, killing a Russian named Striga and dangerously wounding a companion named Sokoloff. The two men were proceeding through the woods, each carrying a bomb, with the evident purpose of hiding them for future use. While so doing the bomb which Striga carried exploded, killing him instantly. Sokoloff was struck by fragments of the bomb and fearfully lacerated. The explosion occurred in the outskirts of the forest, on the road bordering on the suburban town of Charenton. Several persons saw the explosion. Striga's right hand was torn off, his right leg broken and his abdomen torn open.

Were Students and "Reds."

The police found a revolver in Striga's pocket. Striga and Sokoloff both were students of the school of mines and members of the Russian students' union. They also belonged to the revolutionary society. Neither of the men has figured in the police registers of suspected foreigners. The residences of Russian revolutionists have been searched, leading to the discovery of alleged incriminatory documents. Two cousins of Sokoloff were arrested.

Recalls a Similar Occurrence.

The authorities have been aware for some weeks that secret meetings were

Mathematician is a Convict

Kansas City, May 4.—Michael Angelo McGinnis, an ex-college professor and author of a standard work on mathematics, has been convicted of forgery and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. He and a confederate forged a deed to a city lot and sold the property for $300. McGinnis for three years was principal of the high school at Oconto, Wis. In 1884 he established a newspaper at Medford, Or. Later he published a paper at Julesburg, Colo., and held important political positions in Logan county, Colo. He is a direct descendant of John Nahier, inventor of logarithms.

While publishing a newspaper in Newton county, Mo., McGinnis was sent to the penitentiary for misuse of the mails. While in the penitentiary he wrote the book which made him famous with mathematicians throughout the world. He called it "Algebra, the Universal Solution for Numerical and Literal Equations." After his release from prison the book was published simultaneously in the United States and England.

HARD COAL STRIKE SEEMS CERTAIN

Seranton, Pa., May 4.—The session yesterday of the miners' tri-district convention was unprofitable except insofar as it revealed that the sentiment of practically all of the 600 delegates in attendance is for a strike. It is believed that nothing short of a miracle can prevent a strike from being declared. At the conclusion of the afternoon session President Mitchell made a statement in the course of which he used the word "strike" for the first time since the present negotiations began.

Here is what he said to the newspaper men: "The sentiment seems very strong against accepting the condition and restricted arbitration schedule proposed by the operators, or renewing the award of the anthracite strike commission for a period of three years. The strike feeling has been intensified by the unfortunate and unjustifiable action of the state constabulary at Mount Carmel, as well as their conduct in other parts of the coal regions since the suspension went into effect. Of course it cannot be stated positively what the vote will be. That will not be known until Friday afternoon or Saturday."

Henry Ellis, who has had charge of the La Crosse company's farm near Hixton, has resigned his position and will move to Holmen, where he will go into business.

ARMENIAN REDS GETTING BUSY

Baku, May 4.—A daring plot of Armenian revolutionists to rob the magazines in the arsenal here, guarded by the Salivans regiment, which contains over 1,000,000 rifle cartridges, the entire reserve supply for all the regiments composing the garrison, has been accidentally discovered just as the conspirators were on the verge of success. They bored a tunnel 700 feet long in the direction of the arsenal. It was one of the most pretentious examples of subterranean work in revolutionary annals since the days of the terrorists of the 80's.

From the basement of an Armenian house the revolutionists worked their way under several intervening residences at a depth of twenty feet. They constructed a completely sided tunnel, roofed it with planks and provided it with an electric light and electric bell service, connected with the stations of the several revolutionists, on watch. Owing to a slight miscalculation the tunnelers, in burrowing upward, entered, not the magazine, but an adjoining store room in the arsenal, containing uniforms. Before they had time to rectify their mistake the revolutionists were discovered by an officer.

If it is better to KNOW THINGS about prices than to guess and wonder and fret, then it is WORTH WHILE to read the ads.

MORE WORK AND LESS "CHIN MUSIC" IS WANTED AT SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, May 4. — When the committee appointed by Mayor Schmitz to discuss plans for the reconstruction of San Francisco met F. H. Harriman was chosen vice chairman, P. H. McCarthy second vice chairman, and Rufus P. Jennings, secretary. Harriman said: "I believe that we ought to get to work. We should talk less and do more. I don't care if mistakes are made. It is better to be doing something than to remain idle. If you want me to work I will pay a man to do it, if I can get him, but if I cannot I will go into the streets and pitch bricks myself." Harriman said that it would be futile to attempt to raise money unless it was definitely known to what use the money would be put. He declared it would be impossible to go to the money market with a hazy idea of what the money was to be used for.

No Plan Yet Decided Upon.

No plan has yet been decided upon for securing funds for the restoration of the city. Although various schemes, some of them apparently feasible, have been submitted to the general committee none of them has yet been given even the semblance of official endorsement, and the local financiers continue to worry over the problem, hopeful that the early future will produce a solution that will relieve San Francisco from her great burden of municipal and individual distress.

Schmitz Against Wild Dreams.

Mayor Schmitz has advised against entertaining any extravagant ideas of the beautification of the new city. He estimates that the replacement of ruined municipal buildings, including school and fire houses would alone cost $100,000,000.

Matter of Something to Eat.

General Greely gave warning to the finance committee of the citizens' relief committee that he had only eleven days' rations on hand, that the army could not furnish an ounce of food beyond that which has already been purchased or is in sight, and that the feeding of the people is a problem which demands immediate attention.

BANKS RESUME BUSINESS

More Income Than Outgo—Another "Stay Away" Notice.

All of the banks have resumed business in their temporary quarters, and report that at each place the deposits exceed the withdrawals. The number of permits issued for the resumption of retail business grows larger as each day passes. The committee having this matter in charge reports that 500 retailers are now operating in new quarters. Most of the larger stores have commenced to pick up the ends of their shattered trade, and are installed in the residence section.

General Greely and Dr. Devine, of the Red Cross, wish to emphasize strongly the indispensability of doctors, nurses or other relief agents coming to San Francisco. Their presence here will be worse than useless. According to P. H. McCarthy, president of the Building Trades Council, there is no dearth of mechanics at this city. He advises against mechanics coming to San Francisco. Regarding wages and hours McCarthy says that the council would not ratify the slightest change of the previous standard and that no advantage would be taken of the people who contemplate reconstructing buildings within the near future.

For the first time in a quarter of a century San Francisco is to have a municipal chain gang. Unable to find immediate quarters for misdemeanor offenders Chief of Police Dinan has announced that until such time as the police courts are prepared to deal with this class of prisoners they shall all be put to work on the city streets.

C. E. Loss, of the contracting firm of C. E. Loss & Co., which some time ago was awarded the contract to reconstruct the Geary street cable railroad as a municipal electric conduit system, says that it is no longer practicable to build a conduit system in San Francisco.

The United Railways company was able to operate its overhead trolley system within a few days of the fire, while it will be months before any of the cable lines will be started. As it was with the cable so it will be with the conduit in case of another trembler, according to Loss. Both have the cable slot and it was the closing of these slots which made it impossible to operate the cars on the cable system in this city.

The funeral of John Strenstra will be held Sunday afternoon from the home in Dresbach and interment will be made in the village cemetery.

AT THE THEATRES

While much of the simplicity of Charles Dickens was lost in the play "What Women Will Do," a play founded on the novelist's "David Copperfield" which opened at the Park yesterday for a three days' engagement, Harry Jackson, who is responsible for the dramatized version, succeeded in getting much of the true color on the stage. The show was pleasing from the start to finish to the Park patrons.

David Copperfield, the hero of the play, is little more than a supernumerary in the play, the real action being a distinct sort of villain, Ham Peggotty, the rough young fisherman in love with Emily, the innocent young woman and forsaken him for the promises of Steerforth when he is strangled to death by Ham Peggotty during a storm off the coast of Yarmouth, with a few other scenes, in which Dickens' story is deserted gives the play the true melodramatic flavor. The scenic effects of the show are good, and the parts well played. The show is one that will please the theatre patrons, as was demonstrated by the applause yesterday afternoon and last night.—Indianapolis News, Aug. 5, 1904.

La Crosse theatre, matinee and night, Sunday, May 6th. Matinee prices 10 and 20c; night, 10, 20, 30 and 50c.

Frank Miller and the DeLong sisters are presenting one of the neatest comedy musical acts at the Bijou this week that this popular house has offered for many weeks. The quick change made by Mr. Milton from the constable to the young man is very neatly done. The DeLong sisters are exceptionally clever young ladies that can sing and are musicians of the first rank, handling the saxophone and various other legitimate instruments in first class style which shows years of practice and hard study. The act has been one of the hits of the season due not a little to the hard work of Mr. Milton and the excellent assistance of his charming partners, Clark and Temple are getting their share of the good wishes of the audience, also the yodeling of Mr. Clark is very good and the harmony singing of the team is excellent. Packed houses all week show that the people are well pleased with the bill and the high standard set by the present management.

Horse Poisoning Band

New York, May 4.—Samuel Geller, leader of a band that is said to have poisoned more than 1,000 horses in Greater New York during the last five years, has been sentenced to serve a year in the penitentiary. He is 30 years old and lived in Brooklyn. Geller was charged with having poisoned seven horses by giving them arsenic. When the case was closed Superintendent Charles H. Hankinson, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, told the court that Geller's conviction was one of the greatest victories in the interest of dumb animals of which he ever knew.

"Geller has been at the head of a band that has willfully destroyed hundreds and hundreds of horses during the last five years," said Hankinson. "The members of the band hire out to rival business men, and by administering arsenic to the horses of one or the other reap a rich harvest. The tortures the poor beasts suffer in being thus put to death is indescribable."

DECLINES TO ENDORSE CANDIDATE

Lansing, Mich., May 4.—The plans and hopes of Arthur Hill and William Alden Smith were repudiated by the Republican state central committee, which, by a vote of 14 to 10 in executive session, turned down their request to include in the call for the state convention the proposition to endorse a candidate for the United States senate. Hill and Smith fought hard, backed by a half dozen proxies, and were not seemingly discouraged. In fact, the impression seemed to be that they would make a campaign for convention endorsement and would go before the convention any way.

Hill said: "If I satisfy myself that the rank and file of the party desire action by the convention despite the action of the state committee, I will certainly be there for the action." Smith said: "I can tell better in a few days if I shall try to force the matter before the convention. I am not afraid to submit my candidacy to the people."

SUCCESSFUL BASEBALL OPENING.

The Pinks opened with a masterful game yesterday, the single disappointment being in the weak hitting and indifferent fielding of the outfielders. That Cahill, the old reliable, will make good there goes without saying, but the fans were not particularly inspired by the work of the recruits. It may be said that this is early in the season to begin adverse criticism of the team, and that it is enough to have won the first game; however, it is plainly better to offer criticism now while there is plenty of time to change than to wait until the pennant is lost and then offer empty complaint of a misfortune the time to remedy which is past. It will be well to look sharp about our outfield at once.

The day was an auspicious one for La Crosse. The old standbys—Konetchy, Voght, Klock and Bond—were there delivering the goods, Captain Bond's hitting being almost of the phenomenal order. Schneiderberger pitched a good game, though wild at times, and Killian caught with a Rusty-Dodgeism that was inspiring.

Not the least promising feature of the game was the presence of an enthusiastic crowd. The grandstand was filled, and the occupants were not loiterers; they were sensible businessmen and workmen of the intelligent and loyal sort, and their enthusiasm was no doubt a source of satisfaction to President Elliott, Manager Hawley and their associates.

The procession to the grounds was noteworthy for the attentions paid the baseball aggregation, the graceful compliment extended by Mr. Doerflinger being received with applause that was genuine. The appearance in the carriage with President Elliott, Manager Hawley and Chairman Rose of the committee, of Hon. J. J. Hogan and Mr. Leonard Lottridge was greeted with approval. Mr. Lottridge organized the first baseball team in La Crosse and Mr. Hogan played in it and succeeded Mr. Lottridge as manager. They played baseball at what is now the foot of Main street 53 years ago. It was in recognition of their having thus pioneered the game that the management extended them an urgent invitation to attend, and there were no more interested or enthusiastic spectators at the park than these men who were pioneers of many things even greater than baseball in this community.

On the whole, there was not much wanting to make the opening day at the grounds a success in every particular. It gave a promise of good ball and of good patronage, and with these two there is no reason why La Crosse should not claim another pennant at the end of the season.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR LA CROSSE.

The future of La Crosse never looked brighter than it looks today. What it has lacked in educational lines, it is now to be supplied with in the state normal school which, while we should have had it years ago, and without a bonus, is at last to be built upon a scale that is expected to make it the leading institution of its kind in the state, and by the splendid new high school that any city will be proud of having provided.

Industrial growth is being promoted by the reorganized Board of Trade, ably assisted by the Manufacturers & Jobbers' Union, whose "visiting days" inaugurated under the direction of President Colman is creating a keener interest in local factories than was ever before displayed here. As an auxiliary to these things, there is evidenced a determination upon the part of local capitalists to invest at home instead of in other parts of the country. W. W. Cargill was the pioneer of large local investments since the passing of the lumber business, but today nearly every man who has large means is loyally interesting himself in local enterprises, a fact that in a wealthy city like La Crosse means steady and substantial industrial growth.

Commerce is being accelerated through the efforts of the civic organizations and of private parties to secure favorable freight tariffs, and has been stimulated by the building and operation of the La Crosse &

Southeastern. A final practical settlement of the street car controversy, if possible without the introduction of competition, and along progressive lines, will add materially to the suburban expansion that should come with growing industrial and mercantile activity.

The vigorous campaign which The Tribune has for months been making for the patronage of home factories and jobbers and home retail stores, and against the buying by individuals from "mail-order" houses in the great centers of population, has taken root and we hear on every hand evidences that it has been felt in the spring trade in all lines. Other newspapers are now getting in line on the proposition, and in the future none who patronize these greatest of agents for the building up of Chicago and the suppression of smaller cities can say that they had not been warned of the danger of a practice as unpatriotic as it is unprofitable.

These are all encouraging conditions, and every man and woman in La Crosse who is contributing to their fulfillment may justly take pride in the greater city of La Crosse that is to be. Education, expansion, progression—all these we are experiencing, and substantial growth is certain to follow.

The spectacle of the Magnate-Editor's attempt at emulation of The Tribune is indeed laughable.

Perhaps Mr. Cargill's Organs can explain why La Crosse cannot have 40-cent gas, same as Duluth.

La Crosse is being imposed upon by real Yellow Journalism since the Evening Imitator began putting on "the dog."

The building of a Great Arch for convention and gala day purposes is an enterprise upon which the fraternal bodies of La Crosse deserve to be complimented.

The Tribune carries the best local and telegraphic news and the finest line of local advertising announcements, printed in La Crosse to 20,000 readers every day.

Julian Hawthorn's estimation of Senator La Follette, published in The Tribune last evening, must have been read with pride in La Crosse, even by his political enemies.

Finding himself unable to successfully "bunco" La Crosse, the "Old Man" is working the "Beautiful City" game again. For what queer motive time will tell—and if Time don't The Tribune will.

La Crosse merchants evidently go the Oshkosh merchant one better and believe it is worth while to support but one paper—judging from the splendid comparative patronage given The La Crosse Tribune.

Now that most of the "leading figures" in national republican politics have been exposed in the insurance deals, and as Roosevelt has determined to retire the presidential field is wide open to Wisconsin's "Bob."

The uncertain Mr. Gelatt, evidently has openly renounced some of his "6-point" policies and has determined to "scare" people into reading the Evening Imitator with exaggerated heads over every ordinary articles.

The man who is careless enough to make one "mistake" which shows up his entire hand, is like the life insurance grafter after discovery—he might as well save further effort to deceive the people his own crudeness taught to be wise.

Mister Gelatt has "acquired" the idea that more than two papers can't live in a city like La Crosse. Well the poor old Chronicle was kept alive for a couple of years by "oxygen" administered from the Wiscargill laboratories, and if Mr. Gelatt's claim that this vitalizer has been withdrawn is true, La Crosse is due to have one newspaper and one Organ—The Tribune and the Tribune's immitator.

THE STATE PRESS

Lenroot's Boom.

The Lenroot boom doesn't seem to get a great deal of pushing from the people. That thrifty politician, Secretary of State Houser, who was generally considered the Wisconsin floor manager of the Lenroot campaign, is now clummiy with the friends of Davidson. He may be "casting an anchor to windward"—a precaution which politicians observed before he was born. Gov. Davidson has now received formal assurance of the support of Scandinavians, a newspaper in the Norwegian language, published at Chicago, which has long taken undisguised interest in Wisconsin political affairs.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

The Jumping's Cause.

Says one seismologist: "Watch a man hit one billiard ball and make another one jump—that's an earthquake and a building. The earth does not actually move; it merely propagates the shock and the building does the jumping." As a matter of fact, however, it would seem that it is the people in the building who really do the jumping.—Oshkosh Northwestern.

Hock der Kisser.

What's in a kiss? It may mean the loss of his office to Governor Hoch, of Kansas, who says he really meant no harm when he kissed Mrs. Stanley, who had called to see him as a member of the state board. Governors and apostles should 'ware the fair sex.—Eau Claire Leader.

Depew in a New Role.

Senator Depew is emphatically for the expulsion of Senator Smoot. This disposes of the rumor that Mr. Depew is a "nervous wreck."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Russ' Generosity.

Russell Sage, ninety years old and worth ninety millions, gave $5,000 to the San Francisco relief fund. If he lives long enough he may become charitable yet.—Jackson Co. Journal.

Somerset, Pa., May 4.—George B. Somerville, auditor of the estate of Abner McKinley, brother of the late president, held a hearing in the court house relative to the exception filed against the account of Mrs. Annie E. McKinley, executrix. Attorney John R. Scott, of Somerset, who represents several creditors, petitioned the auditor to issue a subpoena for Mrs. McKinley, who is at Tampa, Fla., alleging that she has been there ever since the filing of her account to evade exceptions.

He also alleges that the McKinley place, which was sold at an orphan's court sale to Mrs. Hermanus L. Baer for $16,000, was furnished elaborately during the life of Abner McKinley; that the furniture was spirited away under cover of darkness prior to the sale, and that at the time of the sale there was scarcely enough personal property in the house to fill an ordinary car. The McKinley estate has been known for some time to be insolvent.

TAGGART MAY YIELD

Indianapolis, May 4. — There seems to be no question that the rules governing the manner and time of choosing the members of the Democratic state committee will be changed at the coming state convention, June 7. It is for this that the anti-Taggart men have been contending so strongly, and though the Taggart forces will not now say that they are willing for the rules to be so changed, the story is authentic to the effect that when the state committee gets together, May 9, it will recommend the change.

This seems to be an almost complete yielding on the part of Taggart and his friends. While the present committee probably will be allowed to serve, and not suffer reorganization, the main point that the anti-Taggart party has been standing for—the return to the old method of organization—will have been obtained.

Read the Tribune and get the news handed honestly, and while it is news.

JUST LIFE

Revised to Date.

With little drops of water
Men with gall and sand—
Own the mighty ocean
And the beautiful land.

The Courtship.

There was a young girl in the city
Who certainly was very witty;
By mail she wooed Si,
Till one day, bi and bi
He saw her—the shock was a pity.

Well, since Paul's tu-lips have been Stolen he still has his two offices left.

A "Cling" Peach.

There's nothing so sweet
Or that e'er will compete
With the kiss of a real little peach;
Unless it is when
The coy little hen
Determines to cling like a leach.

Without malice the baseball fans
Undoubtedly wish the sky felt blue today.

Fully Equipped.

"Huxtree?" queried the captain of the local newsboys last night on Main street, presenting the "job-pressed"
side of the Evening Imitator to a groupe of gentlemen.

"Read it all in The Tribune an hour ago," remarked one of them.

"What's the matter with your hands?" queried another. "Been putting your competitors out of business?"

"Naw," replied the newsie, eyeing
his gory-looking hands ruefully.
"Naw," he repeated, "I'm just preparing to paint de town red."

Wherewith he gingerly placed the red-smeared sheets face to face to save his hands and proceeded up the street.

Now if Banker Walsh was like the ordinary "dub" being bound over to the federal grand jury would settle his coffee.

Since the Park Store's display of enthusiasm yesterday it is to be presumed La Crosse now has a hare's foot club.

With Some Men.

Some men are bound to have the upper hand even though they deal it from the bottom of the deck.—China, Glass and Lamp.

"Fair and cold" for tomorrow; looks as though Mac hadn't fixed out that ticket for the weather man yet.

40-cent gas would indicate Duluth
has a Superior way of doing things.

If some billionaire would offer a five spot for every fly knocked over the fence by the locals there would be more home runs in sight.

Unsatisfactory Performance.

(From Chicago Record-Herald.)

"Julius Caesar" was produced presumably "with grand scenic effects"
at Lamar, Colo., recently, and the editor of the Lamar Sparks was there.
He does not seem to have been favorably impressed with "the legit," and he comments as follows on the performance.

Mr. Dodge, who is responsible for the present recrudescence of the legiti-mate on the alfalfa circuit, is said to be a wealthy man, but that does not palliate his offense—it only ag-gravates it and makes him liable to damage suits. His support was fair in spots, but in the main it averaged up with the star in mediocrity. The Roman populace, consisting of Joe Fowler and Tommy Hughes, made the best bit of the evening because it kept still. The curtain was unused to heavy tragedy, having been raised on a diet of minstrelsy and farce comedy, and it balked at frequent intervals, spoiling what were intended to be impressive scenes. Owing to this inmate depravity on the part of the drop the audience was given an opportunity to see the remains of Julius Caesar, which reposed impressively on a bier while Marc Anthony was inflaming the minds of Fowler and Hughes against Brutus and Casius, jump from their resting place and light a cigarette. This addition to the regular bill was hilariously received by the small boys in the audience, and partially compensated them for the disappointment they felt when Brutus failed to introduce any local gags and Calphurnia and Portia omitted the usual skirt dances and high kicking specialties.

The western slope papers which commended Mr. Dodge's Shakespearean efforts will have much to answer for at the final accounting. * * * What the theatre-goers here want is plenty of slapstick comedy, interspersed with whirling lingerie and anatomical flashes.

Probably a Bold
Fake of Lion

London, May 4.—Ambassador Reid
and Lieutenant Commander John H.
Gibbons, naval attaché of the United States embassy here, emphatically deny the allegation cabled to New York that the plans of the British battleship Dreadnaught were stolen by an official of the British admiralty and sold to the United States.

As a matter of fact the main outlines of the plans were already known to all the attaches of the powers who attended the launching at Portsmouth,
they having been allowed to freely examine the ship there. Many details remain secret, and it is not expected here that any power has been able to

WOLFE AND DITTMAN THINK THEY HAVE GOOD PROPERTY

W. F. Wolfe appeared before the county board yesterday afternoon and spoke in favor of an appropriation by the board toward the paving and beautifying of Losey boulevard in accordance with the plan outlined to the board of trade at the last meeting.

Mr. Wolfe did not ask the board to appropriate a sum of money immediately but to think matters over and when the time was ripe give what in the board's opinion was a fair and reasonable sum. Mr. Wolfe pointed out that this thoroughfare was in reality a county road as it is the dividing line between the city and country.

By a vote of six to four the county members of the county board late yesterday afternoon voted to aid the town of Hamilton to the extent of appropriating $2,500 toward the construction of an iron bridge at Steenson's mill. The cities and villages in the county do not share in this expense under a law passed by the last legislature. It all comes out of the other towns.

This season blue serges will enter "the hearts of our countrymen" with a more pronounced affection and now is as good a time as any to call and see what you have been directed to wear. The display is very engaging, consisting of fine and coarse weave blue Serges in fifteen different shades, showing the extent to which a good clothier will go to please countless minds, fancies and purses. Some serges have faint dark lines and patterns of refined design and the styles---well, see them. We imagine we'll not be obliged to announce them very often.

LA CROSSE DEFEATS GREEN BAY

Wins Opening Game of Season Before Large, Enthusiastic Crowd

Hawley's Champions demonstrated their baseball ability yesterday by winning the opening game of the season of 1906 from the strong Green Bay team by the score of 4 to 2.

Preliminary to the game came the pennant-raising ceremonies, participated in by both teams, the officers and directors of the La Crosse association and Dana's Third Regiment band.
Promptly at 3 o'clock, the players and directors formed in line and led by the band, marched around the field to the flag staff planted in deep center field. Here followed short addresses
by Master of Ceremonies John D.
Wilson and Mayor Torrance and the pennant was then hoisted to the flagstaff peak by the entire La Crosse team. The marching column then reformed and returned to the front of the grandstand where Mayor Torrance made a short but timely address to the assembled crowd, introduced Empire Hoffman, and the game was on.

It was almost perfect baseball
weather, and this with a large crowd chock full of enthusiasm and ready to applaud impartially each bit of good fielding and batting, seemed to put snap and ginger into the players, who gave an exhibition almost up to mid-season form. The Champions did not show their true form until the last half of the game when they became strong and finished with something to spare. Green Bay started off like a stake horse, but finished like a selling plater.

Schneiberger, the home team's pitcher, was in a generous mood at the start and gave several passes which might easily have proven costly, but after the third inning he tightened up and allowed but one little hit. Stremmel, for the visitors, was not hit hard at any stage of the game, and with proper support would have made better showing.

Bond's third base play and batting was the bright, scintillating feature of the game. He accepted ten chances, all of them difficult, with but a single error, and his three hits were responsible for two of the Champions' runs.

The scores were made as follows:
Green Bay scored first in the second inning. Kerwin's line drive to left was misjudged and muffed by Fuch-sel and was good for two bases, Hazel hit through center for a double, scoring Kerwin and was caught stealing third, Killian to Bond. Frederickson foul-flied out to Bond and Connor was passed. Stremmel out Vogt to Konetchy. Their second and last run was made in the third. Du Chien struck out, but Geyer bunted one between pitcher and third and was safe at first. He immediately stole second and came home on Brookings' corking two-bagger to left center. Tennant's out, Klock to Konetchy placed him on third, where he died when Kerwin struck out.

The Champions could see nothing
but the pennant flying in center field
the first two innings and five of the first six men up struck out. In the third they scored their first run. Killian groundered out, Brookings to Tennant. Schneiberger hit for a base and Bond scored him with a clean

two-bagger to center. Cahill fouled out to Brookings and Vogt was thrown out on his sharp grounder to Kerwin. Another run was annexed in the fourth on some clever bunting and dumb playing on the part of Green Bay. Konetchy bunted and beat it to first. Klock attempted to sacrifice, but first base was uncovered and his attempt went as a hit. Fuch-sel and Besser struck out, but Killian came to the rescue with a hit, scoring Konetchy, but was himself put out at second. Kerwin to Hazel, on Schneiberger's fielder's choice. This ended the scoring until the lucky seventh, when La Crosse batted out two runs. Bond made his third hit. Cahill flied out to Frederickson. Vogt hit a hot one over second base. Kon-etchy's line drive to left got lost in the sun and was good for two bases, scoring both Bond and Vogt. Klock fouled out to Tennant and Jones, batting for Fuschel, was out Stremmel to Tennant. Final score—La Crosse
4; Green Bay 2.

Notes of the Game.

There was one sentiment expressed in Mayor Torrance's remarks before the grandstand that should be printed in big, black letters, framed and hung in the stand where he, who "knocks,"
may read. "If a misplay is made don't
'roast' the player and call him names."

Many a good ball player has been spoiled for the manager by criticism
of this kind.

"Pink's outfield looks as if it needed
a bracer."

Konetchy's work on first was of the star order. Its worth the price of admission just to see him work.

FEAR A NEW OUT- BREAK IN THE ORIENT

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—Army officers are wondering what the war department will do in the event of a fresh outbreak in the Chinese situation. Officers returning from the Orient say it is likely to become desertate at any moment. The disaster destroyed quartermasters' stores worth nearly three million, most of which were gathered for a possible
emergency in the Orient.

AUG. KROMROY AND SON RETURN FROM FRISCO "BROKE"

August Kromroy and son of North Ninth street arrived yesterday from San Francisco, where they went through some harrowing experiences during the disaster. Among other misfortunes they found after the fire had swept the city that the money
they had in a San Francisco bank would be tied up indefinitely. They had enough money to take them as far as Kansas City and were compelled to remain there until aid was received from home.

joined him in recent years. They re-

NEWSPAPER COMIC SUPPLEMENTS.
Beginning next Sunday—May 6—The Chicago Tribune will inaugurate a revolution in the comic supplements of Sunday newspapers. It will present to its readers a comic supplement of entirely different character than any now extant—a comic supplement prepared by the past masters in the art of this species of illustration, the cream of the German humorists, who have made the funny papers of ita-fatherland the best in the world.

True progress is not the abandonment of what is defective. It is the substitution of something better. A progressive newspaper is quick to recognize a public demand or a public need. If there is any feature which is the object of persistent criticism, even from a limited number of critics, the least that can be done is to examine into the justice of the criticism, and if that proves well grounded a newspaper which recognizes that the reason for its existence is the satisfaction of its readers will make the improvement called for.

Jerome K. Jerome was partly right when he declared that the Sunday comic supplement was a blot upon American journalism. He put this thought into exaggerated language, and is given to putting things in a picturesque way. The truth is that the general Sunday comic supplement is not as good as it ought to be.

The Tribune, like all other newspapers, got into a rut. It proposes to get out—and lead the way out.

Believing that there is nothing in the world too good for its readers, The Tribune some ago set out to find artists whose work would be a sufficient reply to the charge that the Sunday comic supplement is inferior to the rest of the paper.

Naturally, the direction in which attention was turned was toward Germany. The first humorous illustrated journal of any real merit in this country was founded by a German. Germany was then and still remains the true home of humorous art. The German humorous weeklies are the best in the world. Many of the cleverest things in other American newspapers have been copied from German periodicals, without due credit given.

The characteristic quality of German humorous illustration is the good nature of it. Either it is pure fun, without a moral and without a taint, or it is inspired by a spirit of mild satire of social foibles and blunders. It presents types easily recognizable as belonging to the real world. Even the victims can laugh at the way the artist catches the expression of their state of mind. This means also that the picture is a finished production, capable of representing emotion by subtle changes in details, and not confined to broad and exaggerated outlines, although these too are used when expedient.

A representative of The Tribune recently made a special trip to Europe and concluded arrangements which will mark an epoch in the history of comic journalism in the United States. Beginning on May 6th the comic supplement of The Sunday Tribune will be made up mainly of the work of the best humorous artists of Germany, some of whom will draw exclusively for this paper. The field was carefully surveyed and the men selected whose work is the most important in German humorous journalism. At the same time due attention was given to securing a pleasing variety in the line of thought represented in the drawings of these men.

Some of these artists will make their homes in Chicago; indeed, some are already here to study American conditions and to produce drawings which shall have all the accuracy and wit by which their work in Germany has been characterized, and which also shall be full of local color.

Other artists, remaining in Europe, will treat those phases of life which have a universal quality and do not depend upon their setting for effect, or which treat of fanciful scenes in a world of animals.

The first of The Tribune's new artists to arrive in Chicago is Hans Horina, of Vienna. Herr Horina for the last fifteen years has occupied a unique place in the European field of wit and humor. For that space of time he has been the originator of perhaps 25 per cent of the humorous pictures published in German and Austrian papers. For years every issue of the Fliegende Blätter has had samples of his nimble wit. His fertile brain produces funny situations so abundantly that he has made a practice of selling these ideas to the comic papers of Germany. These papers have delegated to others the task of transferring to paper his conception.

From an ethical point of view the change to be inaugurated by The Tribune is no less important than from the artistic. The comic supplement, as it has been and as it still is in the case of most newspapers, has been denounced frequently by teachers and by preachers as exercising a demoralizing influence upon the young and tending to brutalize both young and old. While The Tribune never has been open to the severe censure passed upon the Sunday supplement in general, it cannot deny that the newspapers of this country have been guilty in allowing the evil to reach the proportions it has assumed recently. A determined effort should have been made long ago to set the standard so high that it would be impossible to find a purchaser for the trivial stuff which enters so many homes with the Sunday paper.

The Tribune recognizes its partial responsibility in the matter. It has always stood at the head, but not far enough at the head to compel the other papers to change their tactics. Now it will be necessary for those who have fallen into the habit of condemning the comic supplement indiscriminately to make an exception of The Chicago Tribune and to confess that it is possible to find a comic supplement that is humorous without being coarse, satirical without being vulgar, playful without being mean, cruel, or heartless.

FORMER LA CROSSE GIRL WEDS AT SANTA CRUZ

Last Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock a very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Kenyon, formerly residents of La Crosse but now residing at Santa Cruz, Cal.

The participants were Mr. William Whitefield Gillies and Miss Coila Emilia Kenyon. The brother of the bride, Mr. Fred Kenyon, acted as best man, while Miss Pearl Kenyon was bridesmaid. Only relatives and intimate friends were present. The decorations were in white and consisted of roses, carnations and calla lilies.

The Rev. Mr. Baker performed the ceremony after which an elaborate wedding supper was served.

The couple will make their future home at Boulder Creek, where the groom is employed.

GALESVILLE WOMAN TELLS OF ZION CITY ROW

Mrs. W. H. Parker of Galesville, who has just returned from Oberlin, O., as the delegate of the La Crosse Presbytery to the meeting of the Northwestern Board of Aid, dropped off in Zion City on the way back to visit friends and witnessed some of the spectacular performances following the return of Dowie.

Mrs. Parker says that things are in a bad way in Zion. The city is rent with factional strife. The people are so disturbed that life for many of them has been robbed of its pleasures and they would at once seek other homes could they dispose of their property. However, to move would be to leave all behind, and few of them can afford such a sacrifice.

Mrs. Parker heard both Voliva and Dowie. The former appears to have a strong hold upon the people of the city. They believe that Dowie has been a failure as a financier and that their only hope to save what they hold is through a different management. When Dowie returned last Sunday the 4,000 or more who listened to his harangue were largely adherents from other points. At a meeting a week before Voliva had the people swear that they would not again listen to Dowie; the choir swore not to sing for him, and the bands not to play. Consequently the prophet's following in the city is small. Mrs. Parker heard the stories of both factions. The Galesville members of the colony are opposed to Dowie. Some of them, including Elder Kennedy, are bitter in their denunciation of "Elijah."

Nevertheless, the prophet's opponents fear his hypnotic power, and every precaution is taken that he does not assemble the people around him. Mrs. Parker describes Dowie as a broken-down man. He is so weak that he is unable to stand. When he arrived at the meeting he was carried in by two husky colored servants.
